This is the place for the A-List. Sorry, Kathy Griffin, you may have to wait in line for a bit. The posh, wealthy, stylish people of DC head here for their good times. With an international feel (bongos included), numerous special events, and many roped-off VIP areas you feel the exclusivity of this club as soon as you hit the main (and only) floor. If you want to be uber-selective, reserve a VIP section with comfortable couches and bottle service. Just remember, no flip flops!
